

INSTRUCTIONS

Form 600-00051: Permanent Registration for Media Organization/Individual

Prior to submitting any application, read the superior court rule and Supreme Court rule regarding devices and the accompanying administrative order.

Review the different applications and choose the correct form.

Submit application as indicated in the instructions.

1. This form allows media organizations and individuals to obtain a permanent registration certificate. See V.R.C.P. 79.2(d)(2)(A); V.R.A.P. 35(d)(2)(A); A.O. 46 § 1(b).
2. News organizations must file one form and name a primary registrant. The primary registrant must certify and sign the form. The organization must list other persons authorized under the registration.
3. An individual (not associated with one organization) must complete and sign the form.
4. The completed form must be saved as a PDF and sent to mediaregistration@vtcourts.gov
5. The applicant will receive written notice of a decision by email.
6. The applicant will receive a certificate by email if the application is granted.
7. An applicant can seek review of a denial by filing written notice with the Supreme Court.
8. Registered organizations and individuals are listed on the Judiciary website at www.vermontjudiciary.org/mediaregistration
9. All registrants (whether organizations or individuals) must update registration information, including the list of persons authorized to act under the registration.
