1. As required by law, you must provide this officer with your correct name and mailing address. Please also give the officer your telephone number.
2. Within 15 DAYS, you must contact the Youth Substance Awareness Safety Program (YSASP). Contact YSASP at the County Diversion program at the address or phone number circled on this page to your left.
3. Do not send any money to pay any legal penalty at this time. There is a program fee required by the YSASP. The fee may be reduced based on your circumstances and paid in installments.
4. Until you have finished the program, you must inform the YSASP office of any changes in your name or address.

If you contact YSASP within 15 days and finish the program, this violation will be voided. If the violation is voided, no legal penalty will be imposed except section 656 (b)(1)(E) violations. If you received a 656 (b)(1)(E) violation, you face an automatic license suspension. There is a program fee. The fee may be reduced based on your situation and paid in installments.

The Youth Substance Awareness Safety Program involves discussing your substance use with a YSASP case manager. You may need to meet with a counselor, and you may need to engage in treatment. If you are under age 18, a legal guardian must give permission for you to participate in YSASP.

If you fail to contact the Youth Substance Awareness Program within 15 days or fail to complete all conditions of the program, the ticket will be filed with the Judicial Bureau. At that time, an answer to the ticket will be due. This means the Judicial Bureau must receive your answer within 21 days of the date in the “date served” box on the ticket. Failure to answer the ticket on time will result in a default judgment being entered against you.

If the Judicial Bureau finds you in violation, including on a default judgment, you will have to pay a fine. Your privilege to operate a motor vehicle in Vermont will be suspended. The cost of your car insurance may increase substantially. If you hold a license from another state, that state will revoke your privilege to operate a vehicle also.

You may have other tickets or citations. For example, if you were driving, you may have been given a ticket or criminal citation for operating a vehicle under the influence. Address your response to those tickets or citations to the Judicial Bureau or State’s Attorney as explained on those documents.
