NOTICE OF HEARING

The Restitution Unit of the Center for Crime Victim Services has filed a petition to enforce a Restitution Judgment Order that was issued against you in criminal court. A hearing has been scheduled on the petition on _____ at _____  AM  PM.

The Court’s address and phone number is:

This hearing is your chance to tell the Judge your side of the story. If you do not agree with what the Restitution Unit is asking for, it is important to come to the hearing to explain your position. You should bring any papers that you want the Judge to see, and you may testify at the hearing. You may also bring other people to testify as witnesses at the hearing.

If you do not come to the hearing, but there is proof that the sheriff served you with this notice and the petition, the Court can give the Restitution Unit what it is asking for even without hearing your side of the story.

If you send anything to the Court in writing before the hearing, you also must send a copy to the Restitution Unit at the address on its petition.

You may want to talk to a lawyer about this case before the hearing.

ORDER TO DEFENDANT TO BRING INFORMATION TO FINANCIAL DISCLOSURE HEARING

A Financial Disclosure Hearing is scheduled in this case to determine whether you have the financial ability to pay all or part of the restitution that was ordered by the criminal court. You are ordered to fill out and bring to the hearing the Financial Disclosure form and Disclosure of Exempt Income form. You may also want to bring documents to back up the numbers, such as copies of a recent paycheck, a recent tax return, utility bills, a mortgage statement, or rent receipts. If you receive any public assistance, bring proof of that with you.
